Since 2006, NADOHE members have been pivotal thought-action leaders throughout higher education, helping to prepare students with the knowledge, skills, and confidence to thrive in our 21st-century global workforce. Join or renew your membership today at nadohe.org

We offer resources for all the moments of our members' work, from big to small, challenging to joyful:

Advocacy tools, such as the

NADOHE Communication Guide and the State of the CDO Survey Report, to highlight truths about our work

Opportunities to connect, through our virtual CDO Check-ins, Community Forum, community of Chapters, and at our Annual Conference

Strategies for inclusive excellence, including our signature Framework for Advancing Racial Equity on Campus, our Standards of Professional Practice, and our CDO and ADO Fellows Programs
